Hong Kong Young Design Talent Award

Organiser: Hong Kong Design Centre

Introduction: The "Hong Kong Young Design Talent Award" (HKYDTA) aims to identify and nurture up-and-coming designers and design graduates. Awardees may receive sponsorship to undergo overseas work attachment or study in renowned design company or institutes to unleash their potential. They will contribute to the development of Hong Kong's design and creative industries by returning to Hong Kong after completion of their overseas work attachment or study. They will also share their experiences and insights as ambassadors of the HKYDTA.

There are five categories of awards, namely "CreateSmart Young Design Talent Award", "CreateSmart Young Design Talent Special Award", "PolyU School of Design Young Design Talent Award", "HKDI Young Design Talent Award" and "Young Design Talent Special Mention Award". With the sponsorship by CreateHK, the awardees of design practitioners of "CreateSmart Young Design Talent Award" and "CreateSmart Young Design Talent Special Award" may receive a sponsorship up to HK$500,000 or HK$250,000, and awardees of design graduates may receive a sponsorship up to HK$250,000, for work attachment or study in overseas renowned design company or institutes.
